Sec.-Treas.

Honored

Miss Phyllis Bastin entertained at a delightful shower at her home on Saturday, Nov. 17th, in honor of Miss Melita Fath, bride-elect.

The evening was spent in playing a number of novel and amusing games causing much merriment and laughter. The prize for these was awarded Miss Rheta Campbell who obtained the greatest number of points.

A miniature bride daintily dressed and carrying a bouquet of pink roses, was the centre of interest on the buffet around which were arranged the gifts for the honor guest. Streamers of pink and white, wedding bells and paper roses carried out the decorative scheme.

After the opening of the gifts, which were presented to Miss Fath by Miss Jean Bastin, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother Mrs. J. H. Bastin and Miss Molly Bastin. The pink and white motif was very charmingly carried out here also, showing the ingenuity of the hostess. Another attraction of the evening was fortune telling by ten leaves.

Just before the departure of the guests Miss Fath very fittingly thanked her friends for their lovely gifts and also her hostesses and Mrs. Bastin for a happy evening.

The invited guests included Melita Fath, Rheta Campbell, Elsie McLean, Edna Orr, Budly Jones, Dorothy Jorgens, Harriet Farmer, Margaret S. Cooke, Blanche Urquhart, Ione Harris, Leitha Hopkins, Gertrude Versulys, Florence Urich, Ada Williamson, Gertrude Granlin, Renee Granlin, Madge Anderson, Allen McCullough, Geraldine Farmer, Eileen Collins.

Farewell Party

A very pleasant afternoon was made by the ladies of the O. O. R. P. on Tuesday, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Jopling, when Mrs. Otto Hagg and Mrs. Tom Sletto were guests of honor at a farewell bridge party.

Honors in bridge were shared by Mrs. F. W. Clever and Mrs. E. B. Siler.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by several of the ladies.

Following tea, presentations were made to the guests of honor by H. R. L. Gottenberg, who expressed regret at the withdrawal of these ladies from our membership and wished them every success in their new homes. Both ladies responded in well chosen words.

The ladies departed with best wishes from all the members for their future success.

Ladies' Aid Bazaar

The Ladies' Aid bazaar will be held on Saturday, Dec. 1st in the hotel rooms recently occupied by Gunder Nielsen.

We will have a produce table, homemade candy, quilts, fancy work, aprons, knitting, etc.

Help the church by donating a little something to our bazaar: something eatable for the produce table, a bit of candy, a little fancy work, an apron, a piece of knitting on something for the white elephant table, a dish, a cooking utensil, a picture you are tired of, a book, something you have no use for that might help someone else.

There will be a bazaar supper at the bazaar. The menu is as follows:

Baked beans
Boston Brown bread
Meat loaf
Pies assorted
Tea and Coffee

Tea will be served in the afternoon. Come and enjoy the afternoon and Christmas shop with us. Thanking you in advance, we are Champion Ladies' Aid.

Big Success

The tea, held by the C. G. I. T. girls, in the United church, was an overwhelming success. The proceeds, $23.75, will be set aside for a summer camping trip for the girls. A portion of the funds will be given the church.

The room and tables were prettily decorated in blue and silver. The girls were in costume.

The musical programme was appreciated by everyone. The French fantasy, Rendez-Vous, was encored again and again. Special mention should be made of the following for individual musical contributions: Miss Tilly Small, whose German songs were very popular, Miss Anna Baker, Miss Betty Caldwell, Miss Maxine Ditto, Miss Dorothy Hummel, Miss Louretta Clever, Miss Virginia Farmer, Miss Irene Summers, Miss Phyllis Chamberlain.

Fortunes read by Mrs. Lovell and Miss Anderson provided interesting fun.

On behalf of the C. G. I. T. Miss Anderson wishes to thank the many people, who so graciously and generously helped to make the tea the success it was.

Royal Purple Memorial Day

Royal Purple Memorial Day will again be observed this year at the evening service Dec. 2nd. The service will be in charge of the pastor Rev. Peter Dawson. Special music is being arranged by J. M. Moffatt. This service is held in loving memory of the departed sister of the O. O. R. P. and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Farewell Party

A memorable farewell party was held in the Community hall on Thursday, Nov. 15th, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. Sletto who are leaving the district to reside at Granum in the future. About 150 guests attended. Dancing was the main form of entertainment for the evening. At supper after a farewell speech given by J. M. Moffatt in behalf of the R. & L. Lodge, Mr. Sletto was presented with a Belle razor by G. M. Campbell. With many farewells and hand shakes the party broke up at 2 a.m.

Remembrance Day

The world has commemorated another anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, the sixteenth, Remembrance Day, as we have come most appropriately to call November 11, falling on a Sunday as it did this year, was observed by hundreds of thousands of people in nations all over the world. From the pulpits of churches of all religious denominations Peace sermons were preached and the horrors and brutality of war vividly depicted and unanimously condemned. Gathered at the graves of Unknown Warriors, assembled about cenotaphs and other monuments erected to the memory of the gallant dead, meeting in solemn memorial services, men and women formed an almost unbroken circle around the world as they stood with bowed heads and in impressive silence as the hour of eleven o'clock struck.

It was Remembrance Day! People were flaming red poppies symbolical of Flanders Fields and of the bright red blood of youth there shed. Seventy they had laid wreaths of poppies in many hallowed spots. People heard the pipes and drums play "The Lament," the bugles sound "Last Post" and "Reveille," and they saw the Colors slowly dip.

Pride and sorrow were interwoven and strangely mixed as the memories of those of the older generation were carried back to 1914-1918 and to the first Armistice Day—pride that men, and women too, had responded to the call of duty when that call came; sorrow that so many had been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice or go through life maimed and handicapped to the end of their days. And mingling with pride and sorrow there was a righteous anger that such a barbarian as War should be permitted and sanctioned by peoples and nations styling themselves Christian and civilized.

But does Remembrance mean more than this? Does it mean to begin and end with the twenty-four hours of November 11, and are we then to lapse into forgetfulness for the remaining 364 days of the year until again November 11 came upon us to stand in silence and remember?

Consider, you who are now reading these lines: Have the memories stirred only a few faint thoughts among these things? Is not that almost red hot righteous anger against War and all that War means which you felt so recently already cooling off? If your passionate indignation against Peace, and that never again shall War blast its way in this world, as keen today as it was when you stood in a silence that could almost be felt just a few days ago? Alas, it is true, indeed it is true that in many respects our human memories are short, else we could not bear the burdens which memory would bring. But it is vitally important to the future of our race that we should never forget all the tragedy that Remembrance Day brings to mind. So far as the awareness and unpleasantness of War is concerned, every day should be Remembrance Day.

Canada is a peace-loving country. If the decision could be left to the Canadian people there would never be another war waged anywhere on this world's surface, not upon its seas, nor in its air. Canada has always set the nations an example in disarmament or rather by its refusal to engage in armaments. Our worthy permanent force and numerically small and widely scattered militia is but a domestic police force maintained to guarantee law and order. Or offensive armaments.

But as a nation of Peace, Canada has a duty to the whole world. At Geneva the voice of Canada is always raised for Peace; in world conferences Canada's vote is always cast for Peace. But the responsibility is ours to make our voice for Peace stronger and still more emphatic in a world of nations apparently bent upon engaging in a race for warlike armaments unparalleled in all history.

Narrow nationalism, with all its selfishness, its suspicions, its jealousies and its animosities is the basic, the underlying cause of war. The truth this statement is emphasized over and over again by the well known international conference, League of Nations, in an article entitled "Does Europe Want Disarmament?"—British nationalism wrecked the World Economic Conference called to bring about tariff and currency readjustment. And because of that failure the whole world still staggers and suffers. Sad, sad nationalism has rendered every disarmament conference a failure. And because men still insist upon such narrow national selfishness, the nations are heading straight into another war.

Asbestos Suit Stood Test

Man Entered Flaming Building And Left It Unscathed

A man recently walked through a fierce fire, and was unharmed. He was not even in danger of being burned. He was testing a new asbestos suit at St. Joseph. He entered a flaming and smoke-filled building, covered more heavy boxes, and left it unscathed. His threepart suit consists of a main asbestos garment covering the body and limbs in the manner of a mechanic's jumper suit, heavy shoes and mittens, and a cylindrical mask with a long valve.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake up your Liver Bile

—No Calomel necessary

For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must pour two pints of bile into your bowels every day. Without that bile, you feel sluggish, tired, and listless. How can you expect to clear up a situation of indigestion, constipation, or other ailments, if you do not have a healthy liver? The liver is the most important organ in the body. It filters out toxins and helps to regulate the body's metabolism. A healthy liver is essential for good health.

A soft answer may start good luck your way.

League's Policy Negative

The League of Nations instead of being an instrument working for peace has become an institution attempting to prevent war. Edward Reuss, Czech foreign minister, told the chamber of deputies when it reconvened at Praha. In a lengthy exposure of the European situation Reuss emphasized the league was working along negative lines instead of having a definite positive policy such as it had in the days of Aristide Briand.

Dominion Drama Festival

Brilliant British Playwright Pays Compliment To Canada

Canada is fortunate in having the Dominion drama festival established on such a firm basis, in the opinion of Noel Coward, brilliant British playwright, composer and actor, who is paying his first visit to Canada. The Drama festival, he believes, is a distinct contribution to the theatre in that it makes people "theatre-minded," and stirs up interest among the members of Little theatre groups, their friends and associates in an ever-widening circle.

"It is most interesting," said Mr. Coward, in an interview at Ottawa. "I should like to attend a festival. If possible, I shall be here next spring."

Only 36 years old, Mr. Coward is one of the most successful living writers for the stage. He already has had 24 or 25 plays produced. Now he is on the way to Milwaukee to attend a rehearsal of his latest play, "Point Valaine," which will open in Boston Christmas night.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR FIRST, MOTHER

Before You Give Your Child an Unknown Remedy to Take

Every day, unthinkingly, mothers take the advice of unqualified persons—instead of their doctors—on remedies for their children.

If they knew what the scientists know, they would never take this chance.

Doctors Say PHILLIPS' For Your Child

When it comes to the frequently-used "milk of magnesia," doctors, for over 50 years, have said "PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia—the safe remedy for your child."

Remember this—And Always Say "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia." When you buy your child's medicine, be sure you get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Also in Tablet Form
Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at all drug stores and grocery stores. Each one contains a full teaspoonful of the purest form of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

THE TENDERFOOT
By GEORGE B. RODNEY
Author of "The Coronado Trail," "The Canyon Trail," Etc.

SYNOPSIS

"You're fallen near to a half-shave in plenty of trouble," the lawyer told Gerald Keene. "The Broken Spur has been systematically looting the ranch, and old Joe Carr, your partner, is drinking himself into ruin." But Keene decided to go on as what was happening for himself—not as Gerald Keene, half owner of the Huron-Glue Ranch, but as Duro Stone, tenderfoot in a Montgomery Ward westward outfit.

Duro Stone, dressed in hat and buckskins, prospector till now, is returning to tell Duro and Setae-Goldard, owners of the Broken Spur ranch who had grubstaked him, of his discovery of a rich gold mine, and shows samples of the ore. He sees Broken Spur men rustling flour-glass cattle and promoting against it.

Shake Goldard and Sam Dustin, feeling the old prospector may tell others the things he has seen as to the branding of Carr's cattle, plot to get him to show them the location of the mine and then to kill him.
Gerald Keene, dressed in ridiculous cowboy costume, arrives at the Huron-glue ranch and is hired as a cowboy by Joe Carr. The impersonation of a tenderfoot is successful, and he is accepted as such by the other occupants of the bunkhouse.
(Now Go On With The Story)

CHAPTER V.—Continued

"You see I ain't done much real cowhand work. I was livin' in town and I got me a little bit of money. I learnt what I could from a few books
I read an' then I come West to learn the business. That's how come I was hired. . . ."

"Huh! Year . . . I . . . I We see . . . I That's fine . . . Baines took in the creaking newness of boots and clothing, the clumsy equipment on the pony and he grinned into his hand. 'I see you've got three natches on your gun,' he said, with a grin at the others. 'Wherd you buy it?'"

"I bought it before I started West.
All the books said that a natch is cut in the handle for every man who's been killed."

"Great God all might," said Baines, at all once. "You mean you've killed three men? Is Chicago with a machine gun I reckon. . . ."

"Nope. I done it with an automobile. . . . I got all three of 'em at once. It was just like killin' quail.
They was all sittin' when I hit 'em.
You see I was coastin' downhill an'
the machine swung out the roadside.
They was playin' damned ca-cities just like you was when I rode up and they was talkin' a lot o' damn fool talk same as you. . . . So . . .
I killed 'em. . . ."

At that even Silent Lee laughed.

"Oh, let him alone," he said, grinning. "You'll get nothing often him."

In this manner did Duro Stone in to the Huron-glue ranch.

The bunkhouse did not know that Edith Carr, the pretty, red-headed daughter of old Joe Carr, saw the new arrival as she was mixing a nice jelly for old Joe who was sitting in his chair for his game leg straight out before him on a chair when a Stone arrived. She promptly took her "makin'ings" into the back-office but was quite close enough to hear what took place.

"I'm hearin' tell you want new men," quoth Stone. "I'm lookin' for a job."

"Set so?" demanded Carr. "What kind of a job?"

"Mostly eatin' with a little un-

Mothers adopt Vicks Colds-Control Plan

Helps the Whole Family to Enjoy Greater Freedom from Colds

Doubly welcome to mothers is news that the makers of Vicks VapoRub have perfected a Plan for Better Control of Colds—to help reduce the number, duration and dangers of colds. Vicks Plan is introduced along with Vicks Va-tro-nol, the remarkable new aid in preventing colds—companion product to Vicks VapoRub, the modern method of treating colds. The Plan includes simple, easy-to-follow rules of health—to build resistance to colds.

BRIEFLY, HOW VICKS PLAN WORKS:

• TO HELP PREVENT COLDS

At that first stuffy feeling, that first nasal irritation or sneeze, quick!—Vicks Va-tro-nol—just a few drops up each nostril. Especially designed for nose and upper throat—where most colds start—Va-tro-nol stimulates the functions which Nature has provided—in the nose—to prevent colds and to throw off colds in their early stages. Used in time, Va-tro-nol helps to avoid many colds entirely.

• TO HELP SHORTEN A COLD

If a cold has already developed, apply Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice or plaster, while its medicated vapors—released by body heat—are inhaled direct to inflamed air-passages. This double direct attack loosens phlegm—soothing irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Often, by morning, the worst of the cold is over.

TRIAL OFFER BY LOCAL DRUGGISTS

Get these two Vicks products and use them as directed in Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Full details of the Plan are given in each package of Vicks Va-tro-nol and Vicks VapoRub. Unless you are delighted with results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money.

mind some ridin' on a nice family horse. I kin split wood and hat water an' . . ."

"By God," said Carr, "that's more'n most can do who hire out as cow-hands. Know anything about cattle or is that ouit all bought from a catalogue?"

"Not all of it," said Stone, grinning. "I won the spurs in a poker game."

"You're hired. Get back over to the bunk-house and kill the first coyote who tries to play practical jokes on you."

Edith came back into the room ringling. She had never seen any one just like that before.

"Who in the world was that, Daddy?" she asked. "He looks like a walking advertisement for Christ-mas presents."

"Looks like he'll do for you to play with, Honey, when he ain't workin'. We're sure out of luck when we have to hire men like that. He ought to do to ride fence and leave the other men free for regular work. When Frank Crewe gets back send him in to me, will you, please?"

Edith gave him his pulep, nodded her bright head and, picking up her quilt, passed out to the bio-cher her pony stood. She was young; distinctly more than merely pretty and had dominated every soul on the Huron-glue. As her father watched her go, his face darkened. His bad leg hurt him but other things hurt worse and a little later, when Frank Crewe came in for a chat, he found his boss and old friend in the depths. Crewe did not help matters, for his dark face was darker with wrath where ordinarily it radiated good humor.

"Nothin' good, Joe," he said cryptically. "We've been combin' the back-rangers for a week an' we got maybe four hundred. Not prime stock at that. . . ."

"Four hundred. . . . Joe Carr's tone registered utter consternation. "The beginnin' of the round-up and only four hundred calves from more'n three thousand cows. . . ."

"Calves, hell. . . . Crewe exploded. 'I'm tellin' you, Joe, this four hundred is all! Git that? It's cows an' calves an' steers an' heifers. . . . Breedin' stock an' increase. . . ."

Carr tried to rise but sat back with a groan of pain.

"Hell," he finally ejaculated. "That just ain't possible!"

"I know it ain't. And I know, too, where the stuff's gone but I'll be damned if I could either prove it to be our stuff or show how it was stolen. I know those damned robbers over on the Broken Spur are at the bottom of it. I know they sent two thousand head out to California two months ago to fatten for the market and I know they got seventeen dollars where we got eight-dirty. They're glad to ship their cows out o' the State. But we were asleep. We ought to have a man at the loadin' pens."

"I know. . . . I know," said old Carr placatingly. "I didn't have a next payrol, Frank. I reckon I'm busted flat. I'm sixty-five past and I've got Edith to take care of. . . ."

She didn't come till I was past forty, Frank. I got to find some way to take care of her. . . ."

"You needn't worry about her," said Crewe, who openly adored her. "Plenty of men'd be glad to relieve you of that care. Sam Dustin, for instance. . . ."

Faster Way Found to Relieve Headaches

NOW PAIN OFTEN RELIEVED IN MINUTES!

Remember the pictures below when you want fast relief from pain. Demand and get the method doctors prescribe—Aspirin.

Millions have found that Aspirin cures even a bad headache, neuritis or rheumatic pain often in a few minutes.

In the stomach as in the glass here, an Aspirin tablet starts to dissolve, or disintegrate, almost the instant it touches moisture. It begins "taking hold" of your pain practically as soon as you swallow it. Equally important, Aspirin is safe. For scientific tests show this: Aspirin does not burn the heart.

Remember these two points: Aspirin Speed and Aspirin Safety. And, see that you get ASPIRIN. It is made in Canada, and all druggists have it. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every Aspirin tablet.

Get tin of 12 tablets or economical bottle of 24 or 100 at any druggist's.

Why Aspirin Works So Fast

Drop an Aspirin tablet in a glass of water. Note that BIL-FOR-E touches the bottom, it is disinte-grating.

What happens in three seconds? Aspirin starts to dissolve. In four minutes after taking.

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH

An Aspirin tablet starts to disinte-grate and go to work.
